Children who read four or more books over the summer fare better on reading-comprehension tests in the fall than their peers who read one or no books over the summer. The Massachusetts Board of Library Commissioners is challenging all residents of Massachusetts to read four books this summer – and to share their experience with others. Join the conversation and tell us, #WhatsYourFour?

1. Post the titles and authors of your four books to Facebook, or Instagram along with a picture of yourself reading.

2. Use the hashtag #WhatsYourFour.

3. Tag a friend on the post and ask them to share their four!

Together, we can share in the fun of reading, and encourage children and teens to read this summer.
